Dear Senate members,

I, and many with me, want the United States of America to ratify the United Nations Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities. It is a matter of human right, plus that a better inclusion of people with disabilities will motivate a large group to contribute to the economy and social life. So please remove the RUDS.

I am working for the Royal Tropical Institute in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, as a Senior Health Advisor, with a lot of my work dedicated to leprosy and disability issues.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Erik Post
