INTRODUCTION

ACTS is happy to introduce you this first newsletter, as a way to keep you updated with our activities. Alrowwad has been lucky with Alrowwad friends in Palestine and abroad, and hope that we will be able to remain pioneers in our programs and activities with our community in Aida refugee camp, and in Palestine.

We will be issuing this newsletter every 6 months in this year, and hopefully bit by bit it will be a monthly newsletter.

ACTS, with its five departments: Art, Images for Life, Women, Education and Students, Health and Environment, thank you for your support.

VISION

1. A Free Independent Palestinian Society, protective of human rights and values, free of violence, where children and women are empowered on educational and artistic level in a spirit of social entrepreneurship and innovation in self-expression and respect of human values and rights.

2. Be one of the first centres in Palestine for the training and training of trainers in performing and visual arts in Palestine.

MISSION & MANDATE

Mission: Empowerment of the community, with focus on children, youth and women, Promotion and respect of human values of human rights through arts and education as beautiful and non-violent means of self-expression and resistance against the ugliness of occupation and its violence.

Mandate: Alrowwad targets the national community while focusing on children and women in the local community of Aida Camp and Bethlehem district. Alrowwad targets as well the international community at large to break the stereotypes and show another image of Palestinian people and culture. The centre should have the full capability to mobilize human, technical and financial resources to achieve a dynamic and effective change within the targeted community.

“Everybody is a change maker, everyone is responsible. Nobody has the right to say I can’t do anything or it’s hopeless. We owe to leave a better heritage for our children and the generations to come”

Alrowwad founder and director, Dr. Abdelfattah Abusrour accompanied the children to meet with friends of Alrowwad and discuss future plans.

"We do not have the luxury of despair, but the steadfast hope that we can make a change and leave a better heritage for our children and the generations to come that we and they can be proud of." Abdelfattah Abusrour, founder and director.

Aida Refugees Camp—Palestine

Is one of 59 Palestinian refugee camps, one of 27 in Palestine (19 in the West Bank and 8 in Gaza), and one of 3 refugee camps in Bethlehem Governorate. It has a population of about 5,000 people, who originate from 41 different villages among the 534 which were destroyed and occupied by Zionist groups in 1947 and later.

Aida camp, like other refugee camps, was established on a rented land by UNRWA for 99 years. The land belonged to 3 Christian families from Beit Jala and Bethlehem towns. The surface area of the camp is about 66 dunums (66,000 m²). About 66% of the population are under 18 years old.

The camp has no playgrounds or green spaces nor health center or clinic, and no day care for children. Since 2005, Aida camp is surrounded by the 27 feet high illegal wall of separation from East and Northern sides. Palestinian refugees continue to keep their old rusty keys and continue to reclaim their Right to Return to their original homes and lands, a right that is granted by UN resolution 194 and by international law.

The camp population suffer from about 77% of unemployment rate, and strives to live in a decent way.

Acknowledgments

Since ACTS has been founded in 1998, and until 2009, ACTS has not been able to assure any constant funding to cover salaries and working expenses. The increase in activities and employees number, in addition to the different programs has made it difficult for ACTS to continue depending on projects funding mainly. ACTS’ friends in Europe and USA, despite their limited resources have been supportive to help ACTS continue its amazing and important work in Beautiful Resistance and in building hope in such times of despair. We owe acknowledgments to a lot of people, especially:
