

National PTA Bylaws

June 2011

Article I—Name

The name of this association is National Congress of Parents and Teachers®, governed by the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act of 1962. It is also commonly known, and will be referred to in these bylaws, as “National PTA®.”

Article II—Purposes

Section 1. The purposes of the PTA are

- a. To promote the welfare of children and youth in home, school, community, and place of worship,
- b. To raise the standards of home life,
- c. To secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children and youth,
- d. To bring into closer relation the home and the school, so that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the education of children and youth, and
- e. To develop between educators and the general public such united efforts as will secure for all children and youth the highest advantages in physical, mental, social, and spiritual education.

Section 2. The purposes of the PTA are promoted through an advocacy and educational program directed toward parents, teachers, and the general public; developed through conferences, committees, projects, and programs; and governed and qualified by the basic policies set forth in Article III.

Section 3. The association is organized exclusively for the charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter referred to as “Internal Revenue Code”).

Article III—Basic Policies

The following are basic policies of National PTA:

- a. The association shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian, and nonpartisan.
- b. The association shall work with the schools and community to provide quality education for all children and youth, and shall seek to participate in the decision-making process establishing school policy, recognizing that the legal responsibility to make decisions has been delegated by the people to boards of education, state education authorities, and local education authorities.

- c. The association shall work to promote the health and welfare of children and youth, and shall seek to promote collaboration among parents, schools, and the community at large.
- d. No part of the net earnings of the association shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, trustees, officers, or other private persons except that the association shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II hereof.
- e. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the association shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an association exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) by an association, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) 2 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- f. Upon the dissolution of this association, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the association, the remaining assets shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit funds, foundations, or associations that have established their tax-exempt status under Section 501(c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code and whose purposes are in accordance with those of National PTA.
- g. The association or members in their official capacities shall not, directly or indirectly, participate or intervene (in any way, including the publishing or distributing of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office, or devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise.

Article IV—Constituent Associations

Section 1. The constituent associations of National PTA include:

- a. Branches of National PTA that have been established in the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico, and among schools for American dependents in Europe and the Pacific hereinafter called state PTAs.
- b. Local PTAs (Parent Teacher Associations) or PTSAs (Parent Teacher Student Associations) organized under the authority of the state PTAs in organized areas.
- c. Local PTAs/PTSAs organized under the direct authority of National PTA when there is no state PTA/PTSA.

Section 2. The national board of directors shall determine criteria for establishing constituent associations and setting standards for continuing affiliation with National PTA.

Section 3. There shall be no proxy voting by any constituent association of National PTA.

Section 4. The purposes and basic policies of National PTA shall in every case also be the purposes and basic policies of each constituent association.

Section 5. Each constituent association shall adopt bylaws for the government of the association. Such bylaws shall not be in conflict with National PTA or state PTA bylaws. Such bylaws shall include an article on amendments and shall include a provision establishing a quorum.

Article V—Members and Dues

Section 1. Every individual who is a member of a local PTA organized by a state PTA also is a member of National PTA and of the state PTA by which such local PTA is organized and, as such, is entitled to all the benefits of such membership.

Section 2. Every individual who is a member of a local PTA organized under the direct authority of National PTA is a member of National PTA and, as such, is entitled to all the benefits of such membership.

Section 3. Membership in PTA shall be open, without discrimination, to anyone who believes in and supports the mission and purposes of National PTA.

Section 4. Each member of a local PTA shall pay annual dues as may be determined by the association. The amount of the dues shall include the portion payable to the state PTA as determined by the state, and the portion payable to National PTA as recommended by the board of directors and approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the voting body at the National PTA Annual Convention.

Article VI—Provisions for Service in the National PTA Governance Structure

Section 1. Anyone holding a position shall be a member of a local PTA.

Section 2. No one shall serve more than one full term in the same position, unless otherwise permitted in these bylaws.

Section 3. Anyone who serves in a position for more than one-half (1/2) of a full term shall be deemed to have served a full term in such position.

Section 4. Those failing to meet the qualifications or to fulfill the responsibilities of their positions shall be removed according to the policies of the board of directors.

Section 5. Only those who have consented to serve shall be nominated or appointed.

Section 6. A member shall not serve as a voting member in National PTA's governance structure while serving as a paid employee of, or under contract to, National PTA.

Section 7. Diversity, PTA knowledge, and professional expertise shall be guiding principles when making nominations or appointments.

Article VII—Officers

Section 1. The officers of National PTA shall be a president, a president-elect, and a secretary-treasurer.

Section 2. Except for the office of president, officers shall be elected by the voting body at National PTA's annual convention in each odd-numbered year.

Section 3. The nominating and leadership development committee shall be responsible for nominating one candidate for each elective office. The committee shall report its nominees for office to the annual convention, at which time additional nominations may be made from the floor. Nominees from the floor must have given sixty (60) days' notification before the beginning of the annual convention of their intent to run. Notification must be given to the National PTA president and the nominating and leadership development committee chair in writing.

Section 4. The vote shall be conducted by ballot and a majority vote shall elect. When there is only one candidate for any office that election may be held by voice vote.

Section 5. The general provisions for eligibility for office are described in Article VI. In addition, the following shall apply:

- a. Only those who have served on the National PTA Board of Directors for at least one (1) term shall be eligible for nomination or election to office.
